Everyone has a weak spot.

Too often it's a bad back.

Twinges follow every sudden twist.

Dull aching keeps up, day and night.

Tells you the kidneys need help—

For backache is really kidney-ache.

A kidney cure is what you need.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys,
cure backache and urinary ills.

Newmarket people recommend the remedy.

George Fitton, 3 Elm St., Newmarket, N. H., says: "My back bothered me more or less for the past year. There was a dull, grinding ache across my kidneys and I could not stoop or lift without having catches in the small of my back. My kidneys were weak and I was caused much annoyance by too frequent passages of the secretions. I at length heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the A. H. Place Drug Co.'s. I used them as directed and they soon removed the backaches, relieved the lameness and regulated the passage of the kidney secretions. I have had no trouble from my kidneys

Miners Die in Explosion.

Nanaimo, B. C.—Thirty lives are known to have been lost in an explosion that entombed more than 50 men in the extension mine of the Welling Colliery Company here.

Twenty-five of the imprisoned men were rescued, but the rapidly spreading fire prevented the rescuers from completing their work. Eight bodies were recovered and the workers were making every effort to force further entrance into the two levels affected by the explosion in an effort to save any who may be living and to recover the bodies of the dead before they are consumed.

The fire was constantly gaining headway and while it continues there is little hopes of the rescuers being able to reach the imprisoned. All the men rescued were badly injured.

The Men employed in the collieries on Vancouver Island are of the better class of British miners and all are well paid and have comfortable homes.

Big Haul In Diamonds.

Pittsburg.—A detective agency announces that the home of Mrs. Henry R. Rea, wife of one of the Pittsburg steel kings and a niece of U. S. Senator George T. Oliver, has been robbed of diamonds within the past few days to the extent of perhaps $40,000. The Rea family, however, assert that the missing jewels are not worth more than $15,000.

The detectives find evidence that a buggy was driven to a lane back of the Rea residence, which stands by itself on a high hill, and from there the thieves evidently climbed in the upper windows and looted the sleeping rooms. A large reward has been offered for the return of part of the jewels.

Revolutionists in Paraguay.

Washington.—Revolutionists are active in Paraguay, according to advices received at the state department Sunday from Minister O'Brien. The government forces have lost 20 men and the revolutionists 100, according to the dispatch.

Tony Pastor's Will.

New York, N. Y.—The will of San Antonio, better known as "Tony" Pastor, the theatrical manager, which was filed with the surrogate recently, shows that he left real and personal property worth in all $68,599. Abraham Hummel, formerly a well known lawyer, who was disbarred in connection with the Morse-Dodge divorce case, is left jewelry valued at $1500. The remainder of the estate goes to relatives.

It's a Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and colds and la grippe vanishes. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. George More, Black Jack, N. C., writes, "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by The A. H. Place Drug Co.

The River Jordan.

The historic river Jordan has its origin in one of the largest springs in the world.

Both Boys Saved.

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. The A. H. Place Drug Co.

Hard Food.

"Eat hard food if you wish to keep the teeth clean and preserve them" is the advice of a physician.

Mr. F. G. Fritz, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is mild, pleasant and effective, and cures habitual constipation. The A. H. Place Drug Co.

LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral Services of George E. Joy, Held Last Sunday, Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late George E. Joy was held at the Free Baptist church last Sunday afternoon, and the building was filled to its utmost capacity by those who wished to pay the last tribute of respect to one who was universally loved and esteemed. The Congregational church audience room is undergoing repairs, hence it was necessary to hold the services at the Baptist church, and the building was not large enough to accommodate all who desired to attend the funeral. Rev. John C. Prince, pastor of the Federated churches, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. L. Phillips, pastor of the Free Baptist church. Singing was by a male quartette, consisting of Clinton Ellison, H. Y. Tillotson, R. W. Boys and Fred M. Varney. Rev. Mr. Prince paid an eloquent and touching tribute to the deceased, speaking of his christian life, his musical genius, his faithful service with the Newmarket Manufacturing Co., and his upright and moral life. During his remarks there was hardly a dry eye in the audience, and all were deeply affected by the sad occasion. Rev. Mr. Phillips also spoke feelingly of his friendship with the deceased and of his many good qualities.

The New England Order of Protection was represented by a large delegation from his home lodge; Byington Lodge of Exeter, which Mr. Joy named and assisted in instituting; and several grand and supreme lodge officers and members. The Sons of Veterans were present in a body, as was also the Newmarket Cornet Band. The agent, superintendent and overseers of the Newmarket Manufacturing Co. were also in attendance. The bearers were Charles W. Rogers and Fred B. Higgins for the N. E. O. P., Frank A. Brackett for the S. of V., A. C. Haines for the Congregational society, Charles S. Wentworth and George Smith for the Newmarket Manufacturing Co. Interment was in the family lot in Riverside cemetery.

Family, and incense were many; Charles A. Dearborn, mound of pinks and roses; Newmarket Manufacturing Co., harp; office of N. M. Co., crescent and sickle on stand; overseers of N. M. Co., standing cross; mechanical department of N. M. Co., gates ajar; yard men of N. M. Company, basket of roses; friends from the federated churches, closed book; Grand Lodge, N. E. O. P., pillow; Piscataqua Lodge, N. E. O. P., star; Byington Lodge, Exeter, N. E. O. P., two wreaths; Sons of Veterans, American flag; Newmarket Cornet Band, pillow of roses, pinks and lilies; Sunday School, mound and cross; Ladies' Aid Society, flat piece of carnations; Mrs. Lizzie C. Willey and family, violets; Samuel Badger, spray of carnations; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rowan, carnations; Mrs. Martha J. French, roses; Mrs. Laura A. Haley, pink carnations; neighbors, pillow of roses; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Tuttle and Miss Ella Tuttle, mound of roses and pinks; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pinkham, pink carnations; Miss Alice Gaitly, asters; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Meader and family, roses; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Neal, roses; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father quickly called from his labors our beloved Superintendent, George E. Joy, be it Resolved, That this Sunday School has lost a most worthy superintendent, and every member a friend.

Resolved, That the unstinted giving of his talents, his gracious disposition, his faithful service and the purity of his life be ever cherished in memory.

Resolved, That we implore our Heavenly Father to help us, both School and individuals, to attain the high standard of Christian character he has set for us.

EXTRACTS FROM DIARY

Of Roland H. Emerson, Who is Cruising Along Honduras Coast, Central America.

Aug. 24, 1909. I left Swan Island to-day for the first time since landing here, June 8th, and will go down to the Honduras coast with Capt. A., also to various islands on the way. He is going with the large schooner for a big load of cocoanuts, and takes the large launch with him, and me to run it when in port. We got under way about 3 P. M. and, although very rough, sailed for the Island of Binaca, reaching it Thursday about 11 A. M.

Aug. 26. There are 9 on board and captain and wife. Did not make port, but a boat came out to us, and we left at just noon. We had a good sea-breeze and reached the Island of Ruatan, a distance of about 50 miles, and had all sails down and anchored, in just 4 hours. So we were going about 12 knots an hour and that is better than any steamer makes. Ruatan is a Spanish town; not very much of a place.

Friday. We had the launch off all day, but left Saturday for Utila, another island, early in the afternoon. Did not go in to Utila, as I expected we should, but started right off again for Barrias, a port on the Honduras coast. We had bad luck that time, for a calm struck us as soon as we got started and we drifted back and forth until 5 P. M., when we got a breeze and went on with main fore-sails out, wing and wing, until about 7.30 it came up a little stronger off the coast and then they set all sails on the starboard side. About 9 P. M. a squall came up and they had to take most all the sails down again and went so all night, for it blew a gale, and then in the morning closed down to a dead calm again; so we did not get away until Sunday morning and made slow progress, for the weather was very changeable. One of the large New Orleans steamers passed us, going north, and Capt. A. signaled her to report us at Swan Island, and as she had a wireless they answered yes.

Reached Barrias at 2 P. M.

We reached Barrias at 3 P. M. Monday, Aug. 30, put the launch ashore. Not much of a settlement there; has a few large houses, and the commissary, and they also boast of a depot and a custom house. It is more thickly settled farther in to the interior. The harbor is a very nice one, all sheltered by mountains. The whole coast of Honduras, in fact, is mountainous. The steamer Parismina, from New Orleans, came in right after us, and she has a wireless and told Capt. A. that when they passed S. I. they said the wind blew 75 miles an hour after we left the 24th and the sister ship to this one got badly torn up in the Gulf of Mexico, for it was a bad hurricane there. I bought a Guatemala dollar for 10 cents to send home. Pretty cheap money, but they call a dollar of their money equal to 36 cents in ours. I visited the commissary and the postoffice and got some cards there. After quite a delay Capt. A. got his clearance papers.

Sept. 1 we left Barrias and went to Utila harbor and shipped two sailors, a man for pilot and inspector of nuts.

Sept. 2. Went back to Ruatan Island, stopping first at Coxen Hole at 2 A. M. and that afternoon going round to the north side and anchored in a little harbor they call the "Man-of-War" harbor, and were there two weeks on the rush all the time. We took the launch about 20 miles down the coast that night, after anchoring, buying and engaging nuts.

Friday morning, bright and early, we started for the farther end of the island, to what they call Carib Town, where all the Carib negros live—for they all live by themselves. They build their own huts, most of which are built of red clay and wild cane, and they do it very nicely too. They bake the clay in blocks and put them up like bricks, and it would surprise you to see how nice they do it. They make their ovens of mud and you would think a mason made them of cement, as they are so hard and smooth. There is quite a village of them. They all have small plantations, as they call them, but we call it a small patch of land. They have a few nut trees along the shore and back of those are their cane patches, some raise watermelons, a few pine-apples and bananas. We were on the go back and forth the length of the island somewhere every day, and I hardly had time to scribble down a few notes for my diary, and have not been able to take a picture while away. The island of Ruatan is about 30 miles long and from two to three wide. Cocoanut groves abound all along the coast, and the interior is quite hilly.
