Haverhill Student Lands Safely in Carpenter's Field

Robert Herrick, a student pilot from the Smith-Dutton Flying school in Haverhill, made a forced landing in Jesse Carpenter's big field across from the High school diamond about 7:30 Sunday night.

He was filling in flying time for his license in an Aeronca Champion when a heavy fog blanketed the coast and concealed his home airport. He felt he should fly inland and choose a clear field beyond the fog. He located the Carpenter field and was directed in landing by Ralph Walker who saw him from his porch.

Fred Burke, manager of the Haverhill airport, came up about 10:30 Monday morning to inspect the plane and the field before Herrick took off. There was no serious damage to the plane. Nelson Carpenter directed the plane as it took off.

Henry W. Hogue Elected Comdt. of Local Marines

With the aid of State Comandant Archie Kilpatrick, a meeting of the Bernard-Zuk Detachment was called to order, Aug. 11, to elect and install its officers. The following were sworn in by State Comdt. Kilpatrick:

Commandant, Henry W. Hogue; Vice Commandant, Frank Schanda; Judge Advocate, Richard R. Bolduc; Chaplain, Linwood J. Waldron Jr.; Adjutant-Paymaster, Felicia A. Hejduk; Sgt. at Arms, Raymond Bernard.

State Comdt. Kilpatrick gave late developments about both State and National conventions of the Marine Corps League. The State convention is to be held in Manchester, N. H., on the 6th and 7th of September, and the National convention will be held at Miami, Fla., Oct. 6th to the 11th. Both conventions are open to all Marines, ex-Marines and guests.

The purpose of the meeting was to get all Marines and ex-Marines of Newmarket to join the Bernard-Zuk Detachment and to attend its meetings which will be held every second and fourth Monday of each month at the American Legion hall.

The following is a list of all Marines and ex-Marines of Newmarket. The Bernard-Zuk detachment would like additional names of marines not included in this list so that an accurate record may be kept. Please contact any of its officers to obtain cards for membership.

Joseph A. Beaulieu, Raymond Bernard, Richard R. Bolduc, Richard Butler, Nelson S. Carpenter, P. W. Clough, John D. Davis, Ernest P. Dutka, Victor W. Dutka, Clinton C. Ellison, Jr., Walter Halko, Felicia A. (Dutka) Hejduk, Henry W. Hogue, D. M. Lane, Albert A. Lepene, William Leuders, Sr., Jean J. (Lizak) Micucci, Francis Micucci, Michael Paradise, Gerard Pelletier, Eugene J. Rondeau, Eugene Rousseau, Lionel A. Rousseau, Frank Schanda, Ralph B. Silver, Harold Travers, Linwood J. Waldron, Jr., Chester C. Zych.

Please note that World War I marines are also included and marines or ex-marines of Lee, Nottingham, etc. may join the Bernard-Zuk detachment, also.

New Sidewalk Makes School Travel Safer

When the young people start back to High school in a few weeks, one hazard will be removed. A new sidewalk was built this week from the Sisters of Holy Cross almost to the High school. The sum of $2,000. was set aside for this sidewalk and the Selectmen extended it as far as their money permitted. Originally they hoped to pass the High school, but due to increased costs, this was found to be a little too ambitious.

An asphalt-concrete walk with a stone dust bed was laid by a crew of eight men from the John R. Iafola Construction Co. of Portsmouth who worked under Engineer Woodbury Haskell.

School children formerly walked in the road because of the poor sidewalk. The new walk will be much safer for them.

To Close Epping Road for Bridge Construction

When work begins on the Haines bridge on Epping road, the road will be closed and all traffic will be routed over Ash Swamp road, it was learned this week. On previous occasions, a temporary bridge has been thrown up for traffic, but this convenience would add to the cost of the bridge substantially. It is felt wiser to close the road altogether during repairs.

Local labor will be hired for this job to work under the foreman and assistant sent in by the construction company. The selectmen felt this week that probably eight local men, and possibly more, will be used.

Lee Mari' Announces N. H. Parish Show

The best of New Hampshire's Guernseys will be on display at the Parish Show to be held August 22 at Haven Hill farm, Rochester, according to Mr. Robert Keniston of Lee, director of the New Hampshire Guernsey Breeders' association.

Parish Shows are one day shows where the exhibitors bring in their cattle in the morning, show them and take them home in the afternoon.

Approximately 70 head have been entered for this year's show. M. G. Seath, manager of Fairlawn Farm, Port Chester, N. Y., will judge the show.

Highlights of the show, according to Mr. Keniston, will be the awarding of the Rosewald Trophy to the best Get of Sire, the awarding of the Haven Hill Trophy to the Three Best Uddered Cows, and the presentation of the Winona Farm Trophy to the Best Produce of Dam.

Many Factors at Work as Sharpest Drop in Years is Seen

Lee Tax Rate $3.60 Per Hundred

Lee—The Lee tax rate is established for this year and amounts to $3.50 per hundred, an increase of $.40 per hundred over the 1946 figures.

Newmarket Band Invited to Exeter

The Newmarket band was invited and has accepted an invitation to sit with the Exeter Brass Band Saturday at its Centennial celebration in Exeter from one to five o'clock. The local musicians will be part of the 100-piece band which is to play in the course of the afternoon.

Gov. Charles M. Dale will open the celebration. Oswald Jolie, local band leader, is invited to direct the 100-piece band in one of its selections.

Playground Receives Additional Gifts

The Newmarket Playground has received an additional check of $25. from the Newmarket Eagles who expressed an interest in the trip to the Benson Animal farm. They gave the Civic department a check for $25. earlier in the season for general equipment.

Two large sized, heavy croquet sets were donated to the Playground this season, also, one by John W. Nesbit of the Franklin department store and one by James B. Griffin of the Griffin Hardware store. Croquet is one of the most popular games on the grounds and because the set is in constant use, two sets have been needed each season.

Durham Day Picnic August 23rd

Durham—Durhamites are looking forward to their Durham Day picnic, which is to be held on August 23rd, at Chesley's grove. This event is a revival of the community picnics which were so popular before the war.

Everyone is asked to bring a picnic lunch. In addition there will be on sale hot coffee, ice-cream, rolls, tonic, and hot dogs. Anyone who lacks a means of transportation is asked to get in touch with Henry Davis, telephone 258-W.

There will be races and games for the boys and girls in the morning, and also games for the adults in the afternoon.

The picnic committee, ably headed by Mr. J. C. Tonkin, is working hard to make this event a success, and everything points to a grand community get-together.

When the tax bills go out late this week, Newmarket taxpayers will be pleasantly surprised to see a substantial reduction in their tax rate for the New Hampshire Tax Commission approved a $.4. per hundred rate for this town last Thursday.

Newmarket, the tax officials told the local Selectmen, is the only town or city in the entire state of New Hampshire which has made a real reduction in its rate this year to date. When the local Selectmen went into the Tax Commissioner's office, there was a high pile of books and papers including figures from towns and cities which have not been approved. They presented their figures and left within half an hour with state approval.

The state officials commended the local men on bringing their figures down from $47. per thousand to $40. per thousand in a year when all other prices are going up. The large reduction is due to assistances through the educational fund, to increase in stock and trade valuations and to good management.

A reduction of $.2. per thousand was made last year and so in two years Newmarket tax rates have dropped from $49. to $40. per thousand.

Children Enjoy Seeing Benson Animal Farm

There were 142 Newmarket children who scampered through the gates at Benson's Animal farm Tuesday to enjoy a little over three hours seeing monkey, lions, elephants, birds, snakes and all the other wild animals collected from all over the world. There were 12 adult leaders with the group, each of whom was responsible for a definite number of children who made the trip in two chartered busses.

The children saw three training acts a different periods through the day, enjoyed a picnic lunch and patronized the refreshment and souvenir booths. One bus, driven by Mr. Blaisdell for the Wentworth Line, traveled slower and when it pulled into a filling station in Derry, a rear tire sighed its last sigh and completely gave up. This delayed part of the group for several minutes but Mr. Blaisdell more than made it up to the children on the way home.

Game Called For Darkness in Sixth

In a loose, sloppy ball game, the American Legion came from far behind to top Newfields 9 to 7 Tuesday. The game was called in the sixth because of darkness with the score 11 to 8 and two men out.

Although the Legion scored in the opening frame, Newfields hit Bernard hard to push across six runs on six hits in two innings. After scoring two in the third, the Legion got four more in the fourth to lead 7 to 6 as Red White lashed a home run to right field with Nesbit on.

Newfields rallied in the fourth and tied it up 7 all as Merrill singled home Williams with two out. But the Newfields' defense was getting more and more erratic as the Legion clinched the game in the fifth, Carmichael poling a double.

Eleven errors were chalked up in the game with Newfields committing seven of them.

Score by innings:

Am. Legion	1	0	2	4	2	9
Newfields	1	5	0	1	0	7

Batteries: Am. Legion—Bernard and Webb. Newfields—Williams and Coffin.

Oriental Potentate Visits President

Prince Saif al-Islam Abdullah of Yemen called on President Truman the other day, for what is known in diplomatic language as a "courtesy call." The prince is a guest of the department of commerce. Yemen, a little state in the Near East with rich oil deposits, is seeking closer economic relations with the United States.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

How Much Aid to Europe?

WASHINGTON. — Certain powerful forces seem to be at work to revive the old bitterness between internationalists and isolationists. You have seen it creeping into the news. If it is successful, it no doubt will destroy unity on American foreign policy, and thus hardly serve the best interests of the United States at home or abroad.

The movement, of course, is wholly unrealistic. Actually, the thinking people on both sides are so close together in what they want to do, there is little ground left between them to fight over, certainly not enough to warrant losing foreign policy unity.

For instance, a rather full economic plan for international policy was laid forth by Gen. R. E. Wood of Sears Roebuck, to the congressional economic committee. It was not reported fully enough to be understood. The board chairman of one of the nation's largest merchandising units is rated as an isolationist, but his experience and position is as a merchandiser. He knows how to make or sell every consumer item except food and automobiles profitably or he would not be where he is. From that standpoint he obviously set forth his plan, for there is nothing isolationist in it.

FARM PROSPERITY IS KEY

The economic prophets, says Wood, are always wrong. They thought there would be a depression after V-J Day, predicting seven to nine million unemployed. But we have only voluntary unemployment today (the word "voluntary" is of his coinage). They are probably as wrong today. The prophets overlooked agriculture. Wood sells to agriculture through 600 stores. Since the close of the war, he says, the farmers have had the highest income in all history, and reserves of over 22 billion in cash and government bonds. There has been no decline in productivity of agriculture.

A decline in farm prices might come if we stopped feeding Europe, but the increase in our population of 40 millions from 1920 to 1950, plus the fact that people are consuming more food, shows clearly our farm prices are not tied to Europe's needs to any critical extent. This comes from a man whose company lives largely from farm income and therefore must be believed.

Wood wants to feed Europe, but not invest America there. You can hardly consider it surprising that an American business man does not consider Europe a good investment. He thinks England, Belgium and Holland are overpopulated; that their people should emigrate; that Western Europe has forfeited by failures its place as the testing economic ground for world trends. Whatever we give them, he says, we should not expect to get back. But there is a good place abroad for American investment. He mentioned "the young and growing countries of South and Central America and Canada." Loans to them "if properly applied," he said, "will result in material benefit to those countries and the United States." But loans to Europe cannot really help those countries because they cannot be repaid.

MARSHALL'S IDEA SIMILAR

This is hardly an isolationist doctrine. You might call it an American hemispheric economic program, plus charity to Europe's needy.

Now the Marshall plan is not far away from that in words which have been spoken so far. The state secretary is going to the Latin American conference with just about this same idea in view. Of Europe, he says that throwing our money around must stop, and that the Europeans must help themselves, before they can expect to drain and siphon more from us (Marshall has never said how much). Marshall says we already have sent to Europe 9 billion dollars in goods (our total postwar world expenditure runs 19.5 billion).

The bitterness about this subject, therefore, seems to be cropping up among those who wish to pull Marshall further than he already has gone, without taking full cognizance of the realistic approach to our foreign problem which outstanding merchandising leaders like Wood have suggested.

'Billions for Defense'

The Republicans could not make their cuts stick on defense appropriations. What the house cut the senate restored.

The paring knife of the Republicans would have been more effective except for one factor. The senate Republicans decided at the last minute to give the army air corps nearly 500 million dollars for contract authorizations, mostly to purchase new planes.

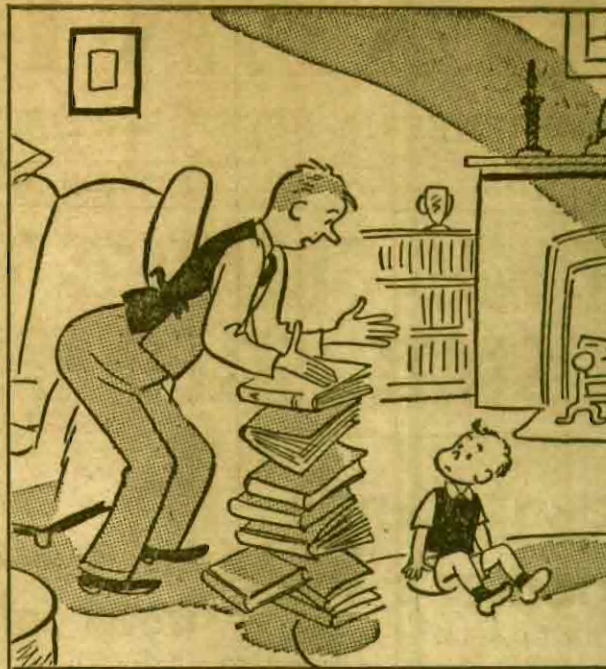

The air corps restorations will allow 55 air groups and 15 more skeleton groups. Air-minded Republican Senator Lodge wanted to provide 70 groups, but the majority apparently thought the restorations would be enough to revive the dismally lagging airplane manufacturing industry and, at the same time, answer the call for adequate air protection which has arisen from the unsettled Russian situation.

Both houses agreed on providing 222 million dollars for army research and development, and 145 million for the air corps alone.

Hospitalized Vets Aided

In an extremely laudable move to make living more pleasant for 100,000 hospitalized American war veterans, a newly organized group, Hospitalized Veterans foundation, has announced plans to provide radios and "live talent" entertainment for the men whose world is confined to the small area around their beds.

Described as nonprofit, nonsectarian and nonpolitical, the organization is headed by Jack Benny, radio and screen comedian.

Explaining the purpose of Hospitalized Veterans foundation, Benny said:

"More than 100,000 American boys lie in government hospitals throughout the country. Loneliness is their greatest enemy. Veterans' welfare advisors tell us that good entertainment must be continued to maintain morale."

The group is attempting to do that by furnishing individual radios to every hospitalized veteran and by planning other types of entertainment. It expects to work in conjunction with the army, navy and Veterans' administration.

Questions and Answers

Q. I have thus far been unable to obtain a G.I. loan from any of the banks in our town. I would like to go into the retail grocery business but the bankers insist that since I have never been in any kind of a business my lack of experience bars me from a G.I. loan. I expect very few of the boys coming out of the army have had business experience, and if experience is a requisite under the law how do they expect any of us to get a loan to go into business on our own? Is there any way you can help me get this loan?—A. L. McP., Peoria, Ill.

A. While experience is not exactly a requisite for obtaining a business loan under the G.I. bill, the veteran must be able to show a reasonable expectation of success in his venture, and bankers and other lenders probably regard experience as an important element in the success of the average business. In a town the size of Peoria, no doubt there is keen competition in the retail grocery business and it is possible that some other line of business or business service would be preferable in the eyes of the lenders.

Q. I am a veteran of the Pacific area and have my honorable discharge from the navy. A friend of mine, who is not a veteran, and I would like to go into business. Is this possible under the G.I. law and how do I go about getting a loan for business purposes?—A. J., Ada, Okla.

A. Yes, it is possible for a veteran to obtain a guaranteed loan in connection with a non-veteran providing the interest of the veteran is properly protected but the guarantee is limited to the veteran's portion of the business. You must first find a bank or other private lender willing to lend the money. VA guarantees 50 per cent of the loan up to a maximum of $4,000 if the loan includes purchase of business real property, and up to $2,000 for non-real estate business loans such as working capital.

Q. My husband was a veteran of World War I and served overseas. He died two years ago. I am 61 years old. Am I entitled to a widow's pension? How old does one have to be to receive a pension and to whom must I write? I would like to have some information on the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Is there an insurance policy connected with the group and where does one join?—Mrs. C. A., Havana, Ill.

A. You are entitled to a widow's pension and should file your application immediately with the nearest office of Veterans' administration. Had you filed your application within a year after your husband's death your pension payments would have been retroactive from the date of his death. However, since you did not file within a year your application, if approved, will be payable upon date of application. With reference to Veterans of Foreign Wars, this organization does not have a fraternal insurance policy and only veterans of foreign wars are eligible to join.

Q. My first husband was a World War I veteran who left three surviving minor children. A year after his death I remarried, but have since been divorced from my second husband. Is there any pension payable to me or my children?—M. H., Cleveland, Ohio.

A. You are not eligible for any death pension based on the service of your first husband. Remarriage terminates any pension benefits which may be applicable, and such pension may not be awarded even though the second marriage was dissolved by divorce.

Q. My son-in-law is a retired army officer who has left the state and refuses to contribute toward my daughter's support. She also has two young children and needs financial aid. Her husband informs her that his disability retirement cannot be apportioned. W.S.F., Chicago, Ill.

A. Where a disabled person, entitled to emergency officers' retirement pay, and his wife are not living together, the amount of retired pay may be apportioned as is prescribed by the administrator of veterans' affairs.

Threw Old Shoes, Rice at Weddings in Ancient Times

Our habit of throwing old shoes at weddings originated in the mysterious East. Nowadays at the ceremony, no bridegroom would dream of batting his beloved over the head with his shoe. But after the Asiatic duo were pronounced one, the groom straightway swatted his spouse with his slipper, symbol of authority, to publicly announce her obedience to him.

The ancient Anglo-Saxon convention required the bride's father to fling his daughter's slipper after the bridal carriage to signify that the authority under which his child had lived had been transferred to a new master.

The old Roman practice of making bridal offerings of corn, symbol of plenty, is recreated in our pelting the newlyweds with rice.

Crafty Hornbill Cements in His Mate at Hatching Time

The hornbill of South Africa is a master at dealing with the "deadlier of the species." This crafty bird chooses a hollow tree for his nest; when the female starts to lay her eggs the male quickly seals her in the cavity with mud, leaving an opening only large enough to insert his beak in order to bring food to her.

Thereafter he does not have to worry about the female brooding the eggs, or any philandering on her part, until after the young are old enough to fly. Then he tears away the cement and liberates his captive.

WHAT people ask first about "The Hucksters" is not "does it follow the book?" or "is it a good picture?" They want to know what sort of opportunity it gives Clark Gable, who wasn't too enthusiastic about the story. Well, for Gable it is fine, and his performance is excellent. The same is true of Keenan Wynn, Sidney Greenstreet and Adolphe Menjou. Deborah Kerr, brought from England for her role, does very well in it, but can do better in something giving her more scope. Of course the story has been changed a bit, to get past the censors, but in some ways the picture is better than the book. And all that ballyhoo about some advertising agencies planning to sue Metro because the picture was too hard on them was just ballyhoo.

Note to girls who rebel at wearing braces on their teeth—Rhoda Williams, 17, who does extra work to pay for her tuition at U.C.L.A., got the role of Shirley Temple's chum in "Mary Hagen" because she wears them. Peter Godfrey was interviewing young actresses for the role when Rhoda happened to smile. Her braces showed, and Godfrey picked her for the part at once.

Like many a woman, Lucille Ball wants a mink coat. This is a special one, made of 85 albino mink pelts. She wears it in "Lured." Producer Hunt Stromberg counted on it to lure women to the box office, just to see it. But—did he know that Joan Crawford and Warner Bros. beat him to it, with Joan wearing an albino mink coat in "Possessed"?

Raymond Massey doesn't see how James Cagney and George Raft do it. He had to slap Geraldine Brooks for a scene in "Possessed," and kept faking the blow till she begged him to haul off and really hit her hard. He winced, she didn't.

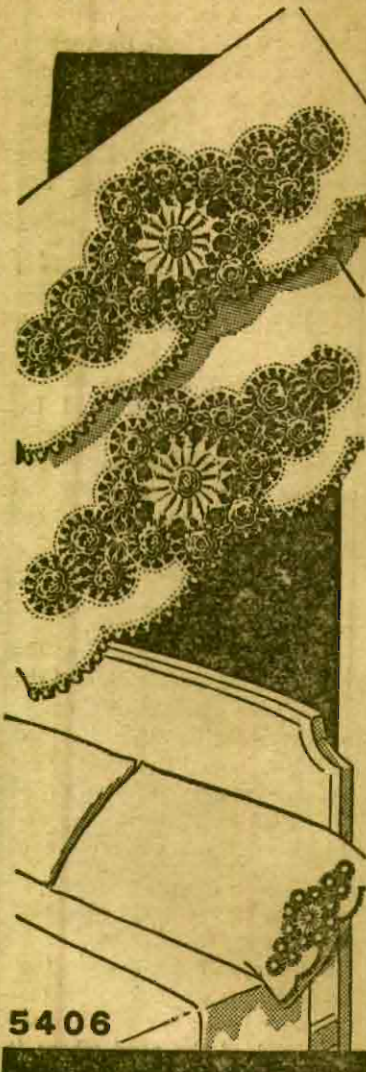

The workings of "Talent Scouts," starring Arthur Godfrey, are the subject of a Paramount shorty. Incidentally, this new assignment, plus all his others, puts the red-headed ex-gob in the quarter million income class.

Lassie, canine star of ABC's dramatic series, will face the cameras again soon at MGM, in "Hills of Home." It is a story of the Scottish highlands.

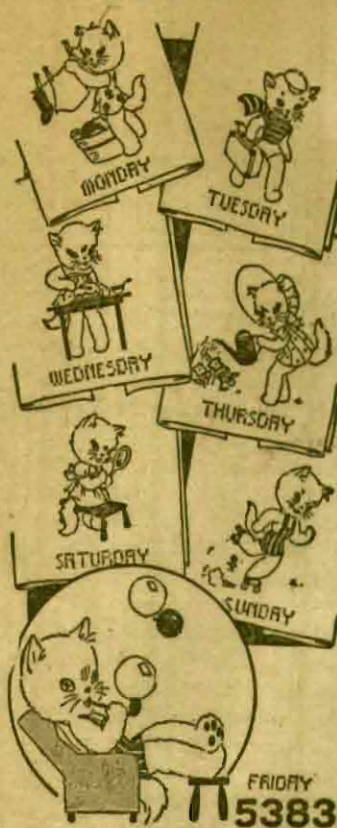

ODDS AND ENDS—Janis Paige bought a new home after having her hair dyed red for "Romance in High C"—said she didn't want her old neighbors to see her. . . . But William Powell is less sensitive; his hair has taken quite a beating, dyed red for months for "Life with Father," then bleached white for "The Senator Was Indiscreet." . . . "First Nighter," missing from the air for the past year, will return in the fall on CBS. . . . Jack Pary, now a summer replacement for Jack Benny—and a good one—was fired from an announcing spot 10 years ago because "he couldn't make the grade."

The double tracking of the railroad through here is progressing well now. A large gang of Italians are now employed, many of whom are occupying the old stone house at the head of Exeter

The selectmen have appointed committees to handle the affairs of Newmarket's Old Home Day, which will be August 17. A basket picnic will be held at Pine Grove in the afternoon, with dancing at the Town hall that evening. Everyone will be welcome to all the events of the day.

Ned Neal, George and Joseph Towle, George Keniston, John Lewis and Will Keleher are camping out on Moat Island in resh river.

The various committees of the Newmarket Agricultural and Industrial air held a meeting in J. M. Caswell's grove Monday night. There was a good attendance and plans were perfected for making the affair a success.

Sixty Years Ago

Men are at work enlarging the company's canal on this side of the river, near the blacksmith shop.

The foot of the derrick which was washed out when the dam gave way a few weeks ago was found on the shore at Kittery, Me., and sent here on Capt. Cheney's gondola.

Two special police are stationed on the company's bridge during the day and one at night, to see that teams walk across and to prevent any jam. One man is also stationed at each end of the road where it enters the yard.

New seats and desks have been put in both rooms of the primary school.

Monday afternoon while workmen were engaged in taking the planks from the Durham bridge a large part of the abutment on the north side caved in and the remaining timbers fell in the river, after supports had been taken away. This will necessitate the rebuilding of both abutments (the other having caved in previously in a storm) and it will be at least two months before the bridge is ready for use.

Wednesday afternoon the best game of baseball played here this season occurred on Young's grounds between the Newmarket school nine and the Wadley Falls club. The game was close all the way and many excellent plays made. This resulted in a win for the school nine by the score of 15 to 13.

Polish Club Loses In Manchester Tilt

The Polish club lost a heart-breaker to Grenier Field after 15 gruelling innings 6 to 5 in a weekend tilt played in Manchester. Two were out in the last of the 15th when Ansaldo singled, Cord walked and Barnhardt hit a Texas leaguer to left scoring both runners.

For ten innings it was a pitching duel between Homiak and Converse. Grenier got their first hit in the 4th and proceeded with three more in the same inning to score two runs. The Polishers' first bingle came with Haley poling out a long double to left center scoring Gingras who had reached on an error.

As Homiak held Grenier Field in check, his teammates tied it up in the 8th. The game went into extra innings as the Club continually got runners on base but couldn't come through with the deciding hit. Bonafant relieved Homiak in the 13th while Cornish replaced Converse for Grenier in the 11th.

The Club broke loose in the 14th when Haley led off with a single and Sharples walked. With two out, Fitzpatrick drove one over third base to score both runners. But Grenier came roaring back. After walking the first batter, Bonafant got Barnhardt out on a fly ball and Marshall reached on a fielders' choice forcing Cord at second. Successive singles by Converse and Farwell produced the two tying runs.

In the 15th, St. Pierre led off and drew a walk as did Gingras, the second batter. L. Pohopek forced Gingras at second, St. Pierre going to third. Haley popped out to deep short, and St. Pierre scored after the catch to put the Club ahead 5 to 4. But Grenier Field was not to be denied as Barnhardt doubled home the two Grenier runs after two were out.

Rams Won Their 13th Game Saturday

The Rams won their 13th game of the season and Norm St. Pierre notched his fifth win in hurling a brilliant four-hitter whitewashing Deerfield 10 to 0 in a weekend contest at High School field. It was the first shutout of the year for the locals.

Ed Dostie paced the Rams in rapping out four base hits and driving in three runs. The Rams jumped on E. White for three runs in the initial frame, added three more in the fourth and four in the last three innings to make the victory decisive.

The big standout of the game was young Norm St. Pierre's chucking. After missing a shutout in the 9th a week ago against Somersworth, he proved that it could be done as he allowed but four singles, all on the ground. Only one runner reached third, and after the first inning, only two men got as far as second.

Rams Defeat Newfields Thursday

The Rams made it three straight over Newfields, as Ed Dostie notched a four-hitter in winning 6 to 2, in a Two-league tilt.

Duke Nickols made his Newfields debut and held the Rams in check for four innings as his teammates took a 2 to 1 lead. But the Newfields defense collapsed in the fifth as the Rams scored three times. The Rams scored two more in the sixth when Silver singled and took second on an outfield error. Ed MacDougal laced a drive to left scoring Silver. Deshaies sacrificed "Mac" to second and Jerry Mongeon singled home the final run of the game.

Ed Dostie, after allowing three hits in the third frame, held Newfields scoreless and hitless in the last four innings. His teammates gave him plenty of support in racking up a total of 18 assists in the seven inning contest.

Newfields Comes From Behind

With two men out in the first of the seventh, Newfields scored four times winning 6 to 5 to gain their first Two-league win while dropping the Independents to the cellar.

The Independents were playing good ball and seemingly coasting in to their first win, leading 4 to 2 at the end of the sixth frame. But in the seventh, Copp and Smith singled successively and were sacrificed along by Wiggin. Sencer flied to the catcher but Williams was hit by a pitched ball loading the bases. Reggie Sharp then drove a single to left center scoring two, a throw from Burnham, trying to catch Williams going to third, ended up in left field, another run scoring. Griffin grounded through the first baseman and Sharp scored the fourth run of the inning.

The Independents tried hard to rally in the last of the seventh when Pohopek singled, stole twice and scored on a ground out to make it 6 to 5. The last three batsmen grounded out to young Wiggin, who played a fine game at shortstop for Newfields.

Planning Board Calls For Autumn Vacation News

Concord—It won't be long before New Hampshire forests wear the glorious autumn colors that bring so many tourists to our state, and the warmth of summer will give way to invigorating fall weather that will make vacationists want to "get around and do things."

The State Planning and Development commission today issued a call for information on what will be going on in New Hampshire during the important September-October vacation period. Information of things for the vacationists to do and see is needed for use in promoting the autumn season, it was said. Chambers of Commerce, resorts, and recreational establishments wishing to extend their vacation seasons are urged to send data on their closing dates and autumn facilities to their regional secretaries, who will note it for their own use and send it on to the commission, it was said.

Resorts and communities interested in winter vacation business were reminded that information of New Hampshire's winter facilities will soon be needed to service travel and sporting publications.

were under the direction of the Brown and Trotter Funeral home.

CANNING AND FREEZING RASPBERRIES

...Raspberries are delicious whether canned or frozen. Fully matured, sweet, soft, ripe berries which have ripened on the vine are best. Pick while berries are plump and before they begin to shrivel. Red or purple raspberries which are fully ripe are preferred. They should be kept cold until ready to use.

To prepare the berries for freezing, clean them by washing in ice cold water and drain thoroughly. Add one pound of sugar to 4 or 5 pounds of berries, or one cup of sugar to 5 or 6 cups of fruit. Stir gently until the sugar is partly dissolved. Fill containers, allowing one-half to three-fourth inch headroom.

A second method is to pack the whole berries into containers and cover with a 50 percent syrup made in the proportion of 2½ cups of sugar to 2 cups of water. An 80 percent white corn syrup solution (4 cups of syrup to one cup of water) may be used, but it is not as desirable as the sugar syrup.

In canning raspberries, the fruit should be packed into clean, hot jars as closely as possible without crushing. The jars should be filled two-thirds full, and a thin syrup (using fruit juice or water) should be added to the top of the fruit. Finish filling the jar with fruit, partially seal, process in water bath, 12 minutes for pints and 18 minutes for quarts. Remove from canner and cool. One quart of fruit will fill one pint jar.

Another method is to pack the berries into sterilized jars as closely as possible without crushing the fruit (about 1½ pints of berries to a pint jar). Prepare a syrup of one-third to one cup of water or fruit juice. Pour hot syrup over the berries, completely filling the jars. The jars should then be sealed. Set the jars into water bath just below boiling and bring to the boiling point. Cover tightly. Remove container from fire and let the jars stand in the water until cool. The water should extend at least two inches over the tops of the jars.

MIDSUMMER TROUBLES

The concern about late blight on tomatoes grows. Judging from the telephone calls and the letters I have been receiving lately, there is no vegetable more popular than the tomato, and people are very anxious to insure their crop. Dust or spray with a neutral copper or bordeaux mixture every ten days or two weeks and you will be able to protect your tomato plants from late blight even if it should be as prevalent as it was last year, which is unlikely.

Remember that DDT is the greatest insecticide that has ever been found for potatoes. When used every two weeks it control the following pests which have been difficult to kill: First, the flea beetle. This is the pest that eats holes in the leaves. Second, the tarnished plant bug. This tiny, three-cornered insect sucks the life out of potato plants and is a common cause of tip burn and drop of flowers. Third is the leaf hoppers. This is the tiny green insect which, like the tarnished plant bug, simply sucks the life out of the potato. Fourth, the potato beetle. This insect has no show whatsoever against DDT. The other common insect that attacks the potato, potato aphid, is not controlled by DDT but as a rule they do not do anywhere

NEWMARKET BRIEFS

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marden at the Exeter hospital Saturday.

There has been considerable blasting on Packer's Falls road this week where Ralph Knight will build his new home. The drilling is being done by the Newmarket Water Works and the blasting by Tony Pinto. Romeo Loiselle who will build eventually on the adjoining lot has been clearing his land.

Frank Sullivan celebrated his 11th birthday August 5th with a party for a few friends at which his mother, Mrs. Bernard Sullivan, was hostess.

Mrs. John Sullivan of Concord spent the week with her son, Bernard Sullivan, and his family in New Village.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reed of Fort Worth, Texas, who are vacationing in Exeter visited Mrs. Alice Kingman at Nyobay one day this week. Mrs. Reed is the former Annette Pendergast, daughter of Maurice Pendergast. Mr. Reed is a minister who teaches at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Priest of Baltimore, Md., are visiting William L. Priest and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster of Exeter street.

Miss Mona Millette is in the Exeter hospital this week for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Neil entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mattson of Miller's Falls, Mass. and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cusson of Turner's Falls, Mass., and Mrs. Louis Pfersuck of New Britain, Conn., and Carroll O'Neil of Shelburne Falls, Mass., last week. Kathleen O'Neil returned with her uncle to spend a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Neil at Shelburne Falls.

Kenneth and Clyde Coolidge and Norman Pease are at 4-H club camp in Allenstown this week.

Mrs. Stella Waugh is in the Exeter hospital recovering from an operation.

near as much damage as the four mentioned.

Now is the time the weeds really grow. Pull them up and make them into compost. They must be taken from the garden in order to kill them; and remember, every weed that remains in the garden may produce 100,000 or more seeds for next year.

Your peas are about over with by now. Are you going to let this place grow up to weeds? Why not remove all the pea vines, cultivate the pea patch, and if you have nothing better, sow early turnip seed where you have harvested the peas. It is often pretty difficult to broadcast turnip seed. I find that by mixing the turnip seed with sand, using about nine parts of sand to one of turnip seed, I can get a stand which is not too heavy.

Dover Naval Station Officers 29 Open Rates

Chief N. A. Flambures, recruiter in charge of the Dover Naval Recruiting station has announced that the Navy department has opened 29 rates for ex-naval personnel in which they may enlist or reenlist if they were last discharged in one of these rates.

In some cases men will be accepted for reenlistment in the same rate in which last discharged and in other cases they may be required to come in at a rate or two lower from that in which discharged.

Due to the amount of space it would require it is impossible to itemize the various rates now open, but full and complete information may be obtained at the Naval Recruiting station, located in the Post Office building, Dover, N. H.

These rates will only remain open only until the 31st of October, therefore all ex-naval personnel who are interested in reenlisting are urged to contact their nearest naval recruiter as soon as possible. The rates are open to broken service personnel as well as men reenlisting under continuous service and includes ex-U.S.N.R., U.S.N.I., and U.S.N. personnel.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Barbecue Fun

Before the crisp, cool weather comes, treat yourself to one of those grand outdoor meals—a barbecue! There's no food like that cooked outdoors for real, honest-to-goodness flavor and marvelous eating.

There's nothing so relaxing, either, as eating outdoors, for most of the preparation comes ahead of time. Then, too, though you have to bribe and beg everyone to help in the kitchen, no one wants to be left out of the preparation when it comes to cooking out of doors.

Perhaps you have a barbecue unit to use for cooking; or maybe you just build a fire in the old make-shift brick oven in the back yard. Whatever you have, it will be good if you make the fire well in advance, and then let it burn down to glowing coals before you start cooking. That's the secret.

You have a choice of many kinds of meat—juicy hamburgers, plump weiners, steaks or ribs. But do have a good sauce to go with them. Or, let the folks have kabobs—everyone will enjoy roasting his own.

*Barbecued Ribs.

(Serves 6)

- 3 to 4 pound ribs, cut in pieces
- 1 lemon
- 1 large onion
- 1/2 cup worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 to 3 dashes tabasco sauce
- 2 cups water
- 1/2 cup chili sauce

Place a piece of lemon and onion on each rib. Mix remaining ingredients together; heat to boiling and then brush sauce over the ribs. Broil slowly on outdoor grill and brush frequently with sauce. For outdoor broiling, place meaty side of ribs down on the grill. Onion and lemon may be secured with toothpicks.

For steak that is really elegant, use the above sauce for brushing the steaks while broiling. Or, if you prefer, the steaks may be marinated, as follows, for several hours before you start broiling:

- Mix together 1 cup of salad oil, 1/2 cup of vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons grated onion, 1 clove garlic and 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Some people prefer a barbecue sauce for steaks, but even then they like to rub the meat with onion, garlic, herbs and such before basting with the sauce. Use your own taste as a guide. Steaks should be first quality, well aged and well marbled with fat for barbecue.

*Outdoor Potatoes.

(Serves 6)

- 4 cups cooked potatoes, diced
- 2 cups sliced onions
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 cup fat or drippings

Combine all ingredients and place in heavy skillet. Brown until crisp and golden colored. Serve piping hot.

*Roasted Corn Ears.

Remove outer husks from ears of corn. Turn back husk and remove the corn silk. Replace husk; place corn ears on grill. Turn frequently while roasting 8 to 12 minutes. Serve with butter, salt and pepper. The husk turns brown but the corn itself is excellent. If you prefer the corn more browned, roast longer.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

- *Barbecued Ribs
- Buttered Buns
- *Outdoor Potatoes
- *Roasted Corn Ears
- *Cabbage Slaw
- *Deep Dish Blueberry Pie
- Cream Beverage
- *Recipe given.

There's nothing quite like crisp, chewy food to set off the barbecued meat, skillet-fried potatoes and roasting ears, as some cabbage served with a creamy dressing and plump red-ripe tomato wedges.

*Cabbage Slaw.

(Serves 6)

- 4 cups finely shredded cabbage
- 1 egg yolk
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1/2 pint sour cream

Beat egg yolk; add dry ingredients and mix thoroughly. Add water and vinegar gradually. Cook in top of double boiler until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Add butter. Chill. Fold in sour cream and mix with the shredded cabbage. Garnish with ripe tomato wedges.

Dessert problems are easy to solve. With fresh fruits and berries plentiful, a platter or basket of well chilled fruit and cookies will satisfy well for dessert. Some like cake for dessert for an iced beverage. Then make a spicy cake with a caramel frosting. It's just the kind to set off the meal properly.

- Spice Cake.
- (Makes 2 9-inch layers)
- 2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup vegetable shortening
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 3 whole eggs

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt, spices and granulated sugar. Add brown sugar, shortening and buttermilk; beat for 2 minutes. Add eggs and beat another 2 minutes. Bake in greased, wax paper lined pans in a moderate (350-degree) oven for 30 to 35 minutes.

Let cool and frost with caramel icing: Mix 1 1/2 cups brown sugar with 1/4 cup cream, 2 tablespoons butter and 1 tablespoon vanilla. Bring to a boil and boil 3 minutes while stirring. Remove from heat. Beat until creamy, adding cream if necessary to make spreading easier.

LYNN SAYS:

Use These Neat Tricks

In Your Kitchen

Place slices of bread on the partially opened lid of the kettle in which you cook strong smelling foods like cabbage and broccoli.

Spear tomatoes on a long fork and hold over a flame while turning. They will peel easily after this treatment.

Tea tastes better if it is mixed with a little orange rind, grated. Also, store it near a box of cloves in the pantry to make spicy.

Let hamburgers take on glamour by serving them as a mixed grill with broiled tomato halves and pineapple.

Prepare for Your Life Work—Booklet Explains How and Where to Get Jobs

Ask These Questions
When Choosing A Job

EENEY-meeneey-miney-mo is an amusing child's game, but it's hardly the way to choose your life work.

Deciding what field to enter, what job to go after, deserves careful consideration. Make a list of all the things you like to do, those you dislike. What's your weakness? What do you do best? That's how to narrow the field down to a few choices.

Household Hints

Junior's new puppy won't produce lonesome wails at night if an alarm clock is put to bed with him. The tick-tock sound will be a lullaby for the lonely pup and keep him quiet.

When placing articles in the refrigerator remove them from the paper bags and place in refrigerator bowls. This increases cold air circulation and looks neater.

Season vegetables such as green beans, corn, or spinach with bacon or sausage drippings to give them unusual flavor.

When melting paraffin for canning do not allow the paraffin to become steaming or smoking hot. Just reduce it to a liquid.

For quick drying of sheets, bed spreads and tablecloths, hang evenly and not quite double on the line.

When crystal vases and bottles need cleaning, break several egg shells into the bottle or vase, add a little water, and shake until all film and dust disappears from the glass.

If you have a bottle of perfume that you hesitate to use because of its heavy odor, try adding a few drops to your bath water. You will find it pleasant.

Bridge Carries Navigable Stream Across a River

One of the world's oddest bridges carries a navigable stream, the Bridgewater canal, across the Irwell river near Manchester, England.

This bridge is so built that the ends of its giant trough and the connecting ends of the canal may be sealed and the whole structure swung open to allow the passing of high-masted ships on the river below.

BOBBY SOX

By Marty Links

"Oh—Alvin's SO stubborn! Even though we're engaged, he insists on seeing other women if I go out with other men!"

ADVICE OF COUNSEL

She was an innocent appearing, wide-eyed girl as she sat on the witness stand explaining how it was all wrong that she had been given tickets for speeding, running through traffic signals and driving without a license. Even the gray-bearded judge took a fatherly interest in her.

"Now, my dear," he said, "I'm inclined to believe you but I want to make sure. You know what happens to people who tell lies in court, don't you?"

"Yes, your honor. My lawyer told me about it."

"What did he tell you would happen if you told a lie?"

"Well, he said we might win the case."

Not Quite Right

"May I have this check cashed, please?" asked the young woman of the paying teller.

"Of course, madam," the teller replied. "Just endorse it please."

"Must I endorse it?" she asked, apparently puzzled. "I'm Mrs. Smith, you know. My husband is out of the city and mailed the check to me."

"Yet, it must be endorsed. Sign it on the back, please, and Mr. Smith will know we paid it to you."

Mrs. Smith took her pen from her purse and passed the check back to the teller endorsed: "Your devoted wife, Ethel."

OBSERVATION POST

A northern fan who never missed a game was visiting in the South, and went to see the initial game of a series between two local teams. At first he was unable to locate the umpire, but finally discovered him sitting in the grandstand among the spectators. Turning to a native he said, "What in the world is the umpire doing in the grandstand?"

"Oh," the native explained, "the spectators used to jump on him for his decisions so much that he figured if the folks in the grandstand could see every play so well, he'd better go up there and do his umpiring."

Time Is Relative

"Dear," the little woman reported, "a man came yesterday gathering contributions for the old clothes drive."

"Did you give him anything?" the husband required.

"Yes, Henry," she replied; "I gave him that 10-year-old suit of yours and that dress I bought last week."

Depression

"What time is it by your watch?"

"A quarter to."

"A quarter to what?"

"I can't tell. Time's got so bad I had to lay off one of the hands."

Serious Offense

Patrolman—Yerhoner, I grabbed this guy stealing apples off a peddler's cart.

Judge—Hm! Impersonating an officer. Ten days.

An Exception

It had been one of the best feuds in years and feeling had been fanned high all over the mountain region.

Now, a jury was being selected to decide the winner's fate.

A bewhiskered prospective juror was asked, "Have you formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of this defendant?"

"I ain't, Sir."

"Do you object to capital punishment?"

"No sir-ee," was the prompt reply, "not in this case, I don't!"

Thin Walls

Visitor to a Hotel Clerk (in a coal-mining city)—This wall is so thin that you can almost see through it. Manager—That's the window you're looking at.

NO CHANCE TO REST

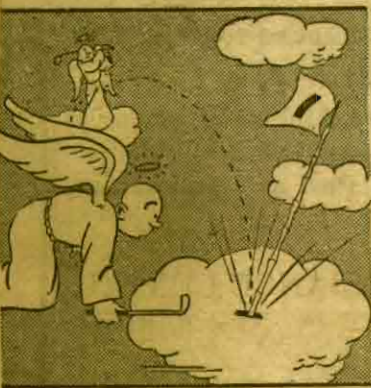

Prisoner—The judge sent me here for the rest of my life.

Prison Guard—Got any complaints?

Prisoner—Do you call breaking rock with a hammer a rest?

FAIR PLAY

The golf match, to end all golf matches was played up in Heaven by St. Peter and St. Paul. St. Peter had the honor on the first tee and promptly made a hole in one. St. Paul, undaunted, repeated the performance. St. Peter marked the scores down dutifully on his card, then remarked, "What do you say, Paul? Let's cut out the miracles and get down to business."

Expensive Ailment

The oldtimer, looking bent, weary and dejected, hobbled painfully up to the bar.

"What's the trouble?" asked a kindly acquaintance. "You look bad."

"It's yoorz," moaned the oldtimer. "I've got a bad case of yoorz."

"What's yoorz?" asked the puzzled friend.

"A double Scotch, thanks."

Maybe He Guessed

Nurse—Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?

Interne—Why, no!

Nurse—Then, how did you ever get the idea?

Becoming Modesty

A GIRL from Texas was being prepared for a trip to New York by her mother. Together they had shopped and bought clothes for every possible contingency. New luggage was procured and finally the girl was ready to leave for the station. As she was about to kiss her mother farewell, the mother said:

"Now, dear, don't you mention to the folks in New York that you're from Texas. That would be like talking about money in front of poor people. We mustn't parade our advantages."

Dollars and Cents

The young fortune-hunter was trying to be frank with Miss Moneybags, but didn't seem to be making much headway.

"I admit I'm impressed by your money. Anyone would be," he pleaded. "But, darling, it's you that I love. I care for your money only up to a certain point."

"Yes, I believe that," rejoined the cagey young heiress, "up to the decimal point!"

Getting Back

"Yes," said the specialist, as he stood at the bedside of the sick purchasing agent, "I can cure you."

"What will it cost?" asked the sick man faintly.

"Five hundred dollars."

"You'll have to shade your price a little," replied the purchasing agent. "I had a better bid from the undertaker."

READY TO OBLIGE

Customer—I'd like to see something cheap in a straw hat.

Salesman—Certainly, sir. Try this one on, sir, and the mirror's on your left.

Careless

Willie—Have you noticed how Ashley drops his H's?

John—It's nothing to the way he drops his vowels. I've got more than a dozen of his I. O. U.'s.

Time to Reduce

"What'll you do little girl, when you're as big as your mother?"

"Diet!"
