Newspapers scanned to archives January, 2011

Great Bay Pilot was a weekly newspaper first published in Newmarket September 18, 1947, until last publication March 3, 1949. (End vol. # 27) Paper was taken over in 1949 for one month and was incorporated into the Somersworth Free Press & Great Bay Pilot March 10, 1949 until last printing March 31, 1949. It then resurfaced as the Press-Pilot, April 7, 1949 until Oct 12, 1950, published by the Somersworth Free Press.

Only full record of the newspaper can be found on microfilm at the New Hampshire State Library, Concord NH.

The following copies of the Great Bay Pilot were collected by Mary Bentley when she lived on Ash Swamp Road, Newmarket in 1946, 1947 and 1948. Mary married a Robert Dupre and moved to Exeter, NH. The papers were donated by her sister Signy Bentley Stevenson before Signy's death in 2010.
