Michael Jablonski

ROCHESTER — Michael W. "Jabby" Jablonski Sr., 74, died on Wednesday, May 7, 2008, after a lengthy illness.

He was born Oct. 15, 1933, in Newmarket, N.H.

Jabby will join in Heaven, his loving wife and best friend of 48 years, Elizabeth "Bette" Jablonski, who passed away Nov. 24, 2007.

He was employed for the past 35 years by Brock's Plywood. He considered the people there to be his second family. The immense love and kindness shown to Jabby throughout not only his employment, but through his entire illness, meant the world to him and provided great comfort to his family. He was considered by many there as a second father, mentor and friend. His greatest love was spending time with his family and watching the activities of his grandchildren as they were growing up.

He is survived by two sons, Rodney and his wife, Connie, of Farmington, Michael Jr. of Rochester; two daughters, Rhonda Hodsdon and her husband, Bruce, of Madbury, Michelle Mains and her husband, Michael, of Farmington; his stepson, Charles Longchamps and his wife, Susan, of West Burke, Vt.; four grandchildren, Melissa Mains, Shaunda Hughes, Jeremy Mains, Stephen Jablonski, and, Reese Marie, his great-granddaughter. He also is survived by Kim Lancey, the daughter of his heart.

He is also survived by three brothers, Alfred and his wife, Lillian, Chester and his wife, Lorraine, of Newmarket, and his brother, Robert and his wife, Julie, of Gonic.

He was predeceased by his sister Stacia.

There will be a wake on Friday, May 9, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. with a funeral service to follow at 12 p.m. in the chapel of the R.M. Edgerly and Son Funeral Home, 86 S. Main Rochester.

The family requests a private graveside ceremony following the funeral services.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude's Children Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.
