Mr. Robinson was born Oct. 29, 1914 in Concord, the son of Arthur W. and Susanna (Large) Robinson. A resident of Durham since 1928, he was a graduate of the Dover High School Class of 1932 and a graduate of the University of New Hampshire with a BS degree, Class of 1936.

He was a member of the Community Church of Durham.

For 36 years he served the U.S. Post Office in Durham as a letter carrier, retiring in 1978.

He was a member of the National Association of Letter Carriers, member of Lambda Chi Fraternity, the 100 Club of UNH and the Rising Star Lodge No. 47 F&AM of Newmarket.

He served in the U.S. Army for four years in the European Theatre in WWII.

He was an avid basketball and baseball player at UNH and played semi-pro baseball in summers.

Survivors include his wife of 51 years, Barbara (Huse) Robinson of Durham; two brothers, Gordon E. and wife Betty Robinson of Barrington; one sister, Mrs. Flora and husband Marshall Shields of Durham; several nieces and nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews. He was predeceased by a brother, William Robinson.

Funeral services were held on Monday, March 14 from the Kent & Pelczar Funeral Home, Newmarket, with Rev. Dr. John Lynes, pastor of the Community Church of Durham, officiating. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the Durham Ambulance, P.O. Box 4, Durham, NH 03824.

and family of East Kingston.

Following an appetizer of cheese and crackers and fish chowder, a barbecued roast beef dinner was served. Even though the weather was not very promising, some braved the water for swimming, others went boating, played volleyball, badminton or horseshoes, while others enjoyed just socializing. Winners of the adult egg toss were Scott Provost and Kathy Smith; and the children's toss Philip Land and Kathy Dobben.

The host and hostess extend many thanks for all who helped in preparations to make the reunion a most enjoyable day.

Thu. July 27, 1978 ****
It is the season-for family reunions. Sometimes I think I'm the only person in Newmarket who's not related to anybody! The latest biggie was at the summer camp of Arthur and Jean Provost on Wiswall Road, honoring the families of the Rodier sisters, descendants of Ovias and Annie Rodier who formerly lived on Grant (Rodier) Road. Attending for Anita Provost family were Mr. and Mrs. Zeph Cote of Nottingham, Mr. and Mrs. John Maynard of Merri-mac, Mass., Mrs. Joanne Skeba and daughter Natica of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Lang and family and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Dobben and family of Newmarket. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cassier and family of Newfields, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Provost of Lancaster, and Jean and Arthur Provost and family of Durham.

Attending for the Ida Rodier Smith family were Robert Smith and family from Portsmouth and Connecticut. Unable to attend but sending best wishes were Carol Smith Soule and family of Bath, Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Labranche (Evelyn Rodier) of Newmarket attended, bringing greetings from their daughter, Sister Eleanor of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lapointe and daughter of Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Emond (Dot Rodier) of Newmarket attended, bringing with them the families of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brousseau, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lebeau and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brousseau, all of Newmarket, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Labranche of Newfields. Attending from Florida was Mark Brousseau and from Newmarket,

Eugene Brousseau. Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brousseau of Newmarket. Mr. and Mrs. William Ball (Loretta Rodier) of Lee brought with them Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belmont and family of Brentwood; unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Belmont

Richard Reilly

DURHAM — MSgt. retired Richard H. Reilly Sr., also known as Dick or Sarge, age 73, went to join the love of his life on Tuesday,

RICHARD REILLY

Feb. 10, 2009. At the time of his death, he was at Holy Family Hospital in Methuen, Mass. Having transferred from Whittier Rehab in Bradford, Mass., and Wentworth-Douglass Hospital in Dover, he had undergone recent lung surgery and had suffered with COPD and CHF. In the words of his wife, Barbara: "He was a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather."

Richard was born April 13, 1935, in Exeter to Philip A. Reilly and Ottelee E. Hamlin. He was raised and educated in Durham and Newmarket. At the age of 14, he fell madly in love with his Barbara and continued to cherish her all his life. At the age of 17, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and on Aug. 4, 1952, took Barbara as his wife. There were tough times but their love and commitment to one another carried them through and together they raised their family and proudly served their country for 20 years.

Richard retired from the Air Force in September 1972, having served in such places as Niagara Falls, N.Y., Fayetteville, N.C., Pease AFB, and all over Europe and Southeast Asia. He served in such units as the 777th, 509th Bomb Wing, 100th FMS.

Upon retirement, Richard went into business at the Lafayette 66 Service Station in Portsmouth. He worked at the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard as a Shop 38 marine mechanic and was a partner in the Exit 3 Truck Stop in Greenland. Upon his second retirement, he became a courier for Granite, Ocean, and Centrix banks. He was a member of Robert G. Durgin, American Legion Post 67 in Newmarket.

He enjoyed spending time with family and always proudly attended all events his grandchildren participated in. He was always generous and there for everyone whatever the need.

He leaves behind six deeply saddened children and their spouses, whom he regarded as his children as well. Diana and Allen Jones of Newmarket, Richard Jr. and Heidi Reilly of Farmington, Cheryl and Milton Trenholm of Epping, Philip and Barbara Reilly of Gonic, and "the Twins" as he affectionately called Lynn Hoffman of Newmarket, and Lorrie Pitt of Durham and their respective husbands, Shawn and Robert. He also leaves 12 grandchildren, Ron Clark, Renee Clark Lamb, April Clark Chenard, Amy Jones LeBlanc, Bobby Pitt, Shawn Hoffman, Nicole Pitt Clayton, Eric Hoffman, Philip Reilly II, Richard H. Reilly III, Tristin Reilly, and Robert Reilly; and 12 great-grandchildren, Alijah, India, and Mercy Lamb, Normand, Daniel, and Jadon Chenard, Bella, Bailee, and Brady Clark, Evan Pitt, Tori, and Reilly Hoffman. He is also survived by his brother and sister-in-law, John and Carol Wentworth of Durham, nieces and nephews and friends from all corners of the world.

He was predeceased by his parents and his loving wife and life partner of nearly 47 years, Barbara Lang Reilly. They are now truly together forever. They will live on in the hearts and lives of everyone they touched.

Visiting hours will be held on Friday, Feb. 13 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Kent & Pelczar Funeral Home, 77 Exeter St., Newmarket. American Legion Services will be held at 7:30 p.m.

A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated on Saturday at 10 a.m. from St. Mary Church, Newmarket.

Burial with Military Honors will take place in Calvary Cemetery, Newmarket on Tuesday, May 19, at 11:30 a.m.

Rather than flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 360 State Route 101, Suite 501, Bedford, NH 03110.

Yvonne Rousseau

NEWMARKET — Yvonne B. Geoffrion Rousseau, 89, died peacefully on Tuesday, May 12,

YVONNE ROUSSEAU

Waltham, Mass., on July 24, 1919.

In 1937, she graduated from Waltham High School. Living in Waltham, she worked at the Waltham Watch Factory, until moving to Newmarket in 1961, when she married Robert D. Rousseau and took on his ready-made family of three children after he lost his young wife three years earlier from breast cancer.

During the mid and late 1960s, Yvonne was the Town Clerk in Newmarket. Later she served as the first administrative assistant to the Newmarket Housing Authority during the time Great Hill Terrace was being built and rented. She was the first person to occupy the office on the premises. In retirement, she and Bob enjoyed traveling, dinner out with friends, and hosting the family holidays and special occasions. But her most enjoyable time was spent with her family and eight grandchildren who she loved very much.

Yvonne is survived by her three adopted children; her son, Mike Rousseau and his wife, Donna, of Wells, Maine, their children, Nicole Semprini of Newmarket and Mathew Rousseau of Bedford, Mass.; her daughter, Diane Langlois of Newmarket, and her children, Jeff Langlois of Allston, Mass., Jordana Langlois of Santa Cruz, Calif., and Joshua Langlois of Newmarket; and her son, Donald Rousseau and his wife, Pam, of Auburn, Maine, and their sons, William Rousseau of Lewiston, Maine, Robert Rousseau, U.S. Army, and daughter, Erin Theriault of Lewiston, Maine. During the last 18 months, Yvonne was blessed with three great-grandchildren; Ava Rousseau, Gianna Langlois, and Logan Rousseau.

Yvonne was predeceased by her husband, Robert D. Rousseau; three sisters, Aldea Callahan, Polly Clemens and Ms. Berthe Geoffrion, and one brother, Maurice Geoffrion.

Yvonne was a communicant of St. Mary Church, Newmarket, and a 48-year member of the American Legion Auxiliary in Newmarket.

At her request there will be no calling hours.

A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated on Friday, May 15, at 10 a.m. at St. Mary Church, Main Street, Newmarket. Private burial will follow in Calvary Cemetery, Newmarket.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Seacoast Hospice, 10 Hampton Road, Exeter, NH 03833.

Newmarket man dies in Maine snowmobile crash

2/27/2011
Foster's

TIM POND TOWNSHIP, Maine (AP) — A 39-year-old New Hampshire man is dead after his snowmobile hit another parked on a trail in Maine.

The Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife says Adam Russell of Newmarket, N.H., was part of a group of four snowmobilers traveling in Tim Pond Township near Eustis. All were friends or family.

Maine Warden Service Lt. Adam Gormely says three of the snowmobilers stopped on the trail ahead of Russell, who apparently didn't see them because of blowing snow and wind.

Russell crashed into a snowmobile belonging to Bob Minnon of Auburn, N.H. Russell, who was wearing a helmet, died at the scene.

There's no word on whether Minnon was injured.

The crash is under investigation.
