

Miss Jennie M. Young

NEWMARKET — Miss Jennie May Young, 90, of 4 Creighton St., died yesterday at her home after a long illness.

She was a native and lifelong resident of this town and was a former elementary school teacher, retiring in 1945 after serving for 52 years. 4/24/63

She was a charter member of Lamprey River Grange and a member of Granite Chapter of the Newfields DAR, the Women's Club and the Home Economics department.

Miss Young was an associate member of the Baptist Society and attended the Community Church here.

Members of her family include a sister, Miss Rena E. Young of Newmarket; a niece, Mrs. Irene Y. Dominquez of Newmarket; a nephew, Thomas Young of Newmarket, and several cousins.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 3:30 p. m. at the Brisson and Kent Funeral Home by Rev. Calvin

Wright, pastor of the Community Church. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday afternoon and night at their convenience. The family suggested that friends might make memorial contributions to the Community Church Building Fund, or to their favorite charity.

Miss Rena Young

NEWMARKET — Miss Rena Young, 90, died in a local nursing home yesterday after a brief illness. 1/23/67

She was born here and lived at 4 Creighton St. She was a 50 year member of the former Lamprey River Grange and was secretary for many years.

Miss Young was a past president of the Newmarket Woman's Club, a member of the N.H. Arts and Crafts Association, a charter member of the New Market Historical Society; chaplain for many years of Granite Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Newfields; associate member of the Baptist Society, and, attended Newmarket Community Church.

The family includes a niece, Mrs. Irene Dominguez of Newmarket; a grandnephew, Richard Dominguez of Pottsdam, N. Y.; two great-grand nephews.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon in the Brisson and Kent Funeral Home here, followed by burial in Riverside Cemetery in the spring.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and evening.